Local mums swim the Channel

A TRIO of East Devon mums have completed a challenge of a lifetime after swimming the English Channel and raising more than £6,000 for the Sidmouth Lifeboat.

Also known as the 'East Devon Babes,' Jo Billing and Kathy Anzuino from Honiton, and Kate Jackson from Wiggaton, near Ottery St Mary, have been training hard for almost two years, and are proud to have completed their dream.

Beating off a one-week wait for the perfect weather conditions, sea sickness, jelly fish and an injury, the swimming trio had a tough time, but succeeded in their relay challenge, taking just 15 hours and 22 minutes to reach Cap Grisnez.

by Laura Goldsbury Noy
laura@pemedia.co.uk

The team set off from Shakespeare beach in Kent at 5:15am on Friday, July 5th after waiting for the right conditions to swim alongside other groups of people who were also taking on the challenge.

The ladies planned to swim the channel in a relay working together as a team, with each taking it in turns to swim for an hour.

While other relay swimmers crossing the channel that day swam in teams of six, the East Devon Babes had to work doubly hard to reach their goal, but still managed to beat their predicted time of 18 hours, with the help of two support members from the Exmouth Swimming and Lifesaving Society and their crew.

Kathy said: "Unfortunately, I had the toughest ride, as I had intense sea sickness and alongside that, was stung all up one side by jellyfish and I had hurt my shoulder."

"From the moment the claxon sounds, you have to swim and you can't touch the boat, unless you are getting in or out so I had to push through my injuries and practically bat the jellyfish out of the way as I swam. After the third swim, the water levelled out and it was a beautiful sunny day.

"I have to say it is an amazing feeling to swim in the open water with container ships and ferries going by."

"Despite it being such a hard challenge, it is one that I will never forget and I am extremely proud."

Describing the highlight of her trip, Jo said: "The highlight for me was seeing Kate land on the rocks and know that we had succeeded."

"We were all so shattered, as although we were meant to be sleeping on the boat in between our swims, we just couldn't and there was that constant feeling that our dream could be taken away from us."

"It was great that we had managed to complete the swim in the daytime too, as Kate in particular was worried about night swimming."

"I am really proud of us all and I am so pleased that I got to share this experience with Kathy and Kate."

The East Devon Babes chose the independent Sidmouth Lifeboat as their charity, because, as keen swimmers, the lifeboat is a key safety aspect to their time swimming on the East Devon Coast.

They were particularly keen to raise funds for the lifeboat as it is entirely independent and relies on fundraising and volunteers to continue its life saving work.

The trio's original goal was £5,000 but they had already exceeded the amount before their swim and are now nearing £6,000 with more sponsorship money to collect.

Alongside sponsors for the swim, the fundraisers also held a number of events to raise money including competitions, raffles, a concert and various stalls at local events.

Kate added: "It really was a team effort, as even when it was getting tough, nobody wanted to let each other down."

"We have all put in so much time, with years of training, energy and finances in order to complete the challenge and this was our one chance to make sure we got there."

"We all supported each other, and really made sure that we could all do our best."

"After two years of training together, Jo and Kathy are my best friends, and we all know each other inside out."

"We could all tell, just by looking if one of us was feeling bad, needed a hug or just needed a few kind words to keep us focused on the task."

"Perhaps one of the funnier moments was the fact that, bearing in mind you must follow the rules to the letter, I clambered up on to the wrong rock at the finish, thinking I had completed the relay and then had to transfer onto another rock closer to land!"

The group thanked all their friends, family and supporters who have helped to fundraise or helped to ensure they finished their channel swim.

Thanks went in particular to Alan Franks and Mark and Barry Westaway from the Exmouth Swimming and Lifesaving Society and the English Channel Swimming and Piloting Federation for their encouragement, training programme and swimming expertise.

The trio added: "We couldn't have done it on our own, they boosted our morale, and gave us so much expertise, reassuring us that we were doing well and making sure we were safe and had enough strength to swim."

The team has received an official route and print off certification following the swim and will be attending a special channel swimmers ball next March where they will be presented with their swimmers certificate.

The East Devon Babes will continue to swim together in the future, including taking part in the Sidmouth to Ladram Bay sponsored swim in September.

You can still sponsor or support the East Devon Babes by visiting their Just Giving site at www.justgiving.com/Kate-Jackson8

Health summit tonight

A PUBLIC health and social care summit will be held in Honiton tonight (July 16th).

Honiton Surgery GPs Dr Anne Saunders and Dr Justin Geddes have helped to set the event up and hope for a big turnout.

In a joint statement they said: "Health and social care are important issues for all of us. Some of us need more specialised services from hospitals, others need maternity care, and increasingly our more elderly and frail patients need services that meet their specific needs and are as close to home as possible."

The summit has been called because of changes to the NHS structure from April of this year; Honiton GPs have become a member of the Northern, Eastern and Western Devon Clinical Commissioning Group (NEWDCG), which plans and buys healthcare services on your behalf.

Doctors Saunders and Geddes added: "From October 2015 our contract with Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust to provide community services such as Honiton Hospital, district nursing and community physiotherapy is due for renewal.

"By the end of this year we need to decide exactly which services we want provided in the future and how they are run."

"For us to make sure these services match what local people need, we are holding a health summit at Honiton Community College on Tuesday July 16th from 7pm."

"At the summit we will explain a little more about what we do and what we need to do."

"We will also ask you for your thoughts as we want to involve you when deciding the future contracts for your local health services."

"We all know resources are not unlimited and we need to choose the most appropriate priorities for our local area. We are keen to hear from all of you, young or old, about how our health services can be designed and planned for you and the next generation, so please come along to the health summit."

LOCAL cricket's most astonishing scorecard was over in the Somerset League Division 8S where club records tumbled as All Saints bounced back from last week's heavy defeat at Westlands with a 250-run mauling of Ilton at Goldsmith Lane.

Saints' opening batsmen Josh Short and Ron Seward put the Ilton bowlers to the sword compiling a club record partnership of 241. Short ended with his maiden league century a brilliant unbeaten 166 - another club record for the Somerset League.

Call for action after fatality

MP NEIL Parish has demanded a meeting with The Highways Agency after last week's fatal crash on the A35 outside Hunters Lodge.

One person died in the two-vehicle accident involving a car and a van at about 4.25 pm on Wednesday of last week.

Early reports indicated that all casualties were alive when conveyed from the scene, but it was later confirmed that one person, 82 year-old Pamela Manning, from Harrow in Middlesex, was declared dead at the scene.

In a strongly-worded letter to The Highways Agency, MP Parish wrote: "It is more than a year ago since we had a meeting to discuss improvements to the junction onto the A35 at Hunters Lodge.

"Unfortunately there have now been further accidents which resulted in two fatalities and one person critically injured.

"At the last meeting we had you discussed that while there had been many accidents at the junction, there had not been any major fatalities; this now is unfortunately no longer the case as we have had fatal accidents within the last month.

"I would therefore ask that we convene a meeting with both Uplyme and Axminster parish councils in the very near future to discuss ways that we can improve this terrible junction."

Concerned resident Joy Raymond runs Hedgehog Corner B&B, which is located near the junction.

She told Pulman's View: "I wrote to Neil Parish MP begging him to look into the dreadful junction at Hunters Lodge which has resulted in numerous accidents and last night's horrific news about the fatality.

"I was approached last year by Uplyme Parish Council when they were in discussions with Highways about the junction to see if I would consider the corner of my field to help with either a roundabout or lights."

Last week's collision involved a Renault Kangoo van and a Vauxhall Corsa and a police spokesperson said: "The three female occupants of the Corsa were trapped in the vehicle.

"The female back seat passenger, aged 82, was pronounced deceased at the scene.

"Formal identification has not yet been completed although next of kin have been made aware.

"The female driver of the car, an 85-year-old woman from Middlesex, and the female front seat passenger were taken to Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital. At the time of going to press, the woman had not been named.

"The driver of the Kangoo van, a 61-year-old man from Beer, suffered a minor injury."

From the editor's chair Tragedy strikes twice

IT'S BEEN a distressing week in East Devon.

Last Tuesday, just after Pulman's View had gone to press, a motorhome careered down a steep hill in Beer, colliding with a group of young pedestrians, seven of which ended up in hospital, one with serious injuries.

And then, on Friday afternoon, an 82-year-old woman passenger lost her life in a two-vehicle collision at the notorious Hunters Lodge junction near Axminster.

A group of youngsters from Bristol were enjoying glorious sunshine on an outing to the fishing village of Beer when the motorhome driven by a German visitor ran out of control the wrong way down a one-way street.

As the driver has been arrested and bailed on suspicion of dangerous driving, it is not possible to comment further on the incident, other than to say it shocked the village and was particularly traumatic for those who witnessed it, especially young children.

Soon after the fatality at Hunters Lodge, MP Neil Parish was pressing the Highways Agency for a meeting with both Uplyme Parish Council and Axminster Town Council to discuss improving the safety of what Mr Parish described as "this terrible junction".

Mr Parish attended a meeting with the Highways Agency a year ago when it was pointed out that whilst there had been many accidents at the junction, there had been no fatalities.

Since then two people have died at or near Hunters Lodge on the A35 and one person has been seriously injured.

For almost as long as I have been a reporter there have been calls for some form of traffic calming at Hunters Lodge, either a roundabout of traffic lights. The answer has always been that the accident statistics did not warrant such expensive solutions. That excuse no longer stands.

It's been a miracle that there has been so few fatalities over the years but one death is one too many and surely the powers that be now have to find the money to come up with a scheme to prevent further deaths at this junction.

COLYFORD

Local man admits money laundering

A COLYFORD man has avoided being sent directly to prison after admitting money laundering as part of international, multi-million pound fraud.

Jeffery Owen, 64, of Old Manor Gardens, appeared at Ipswich Crown Court on Friday, where he was sentenced to 12 months imprisonment suspended for two years and ordered to complete 200 hours of unpaid community work.

Defending, Stephen Mather said: "His level of criminality was as a 'money mule', a man who allowed the use of his bank account."

Mr Owen, who had been running a struggling company and was declared bankrupt in 2012, had been recruited by a fellow businessman who was looking for ways to launder the proceeds of two fraudulent schemes being run from Spain.

Initially, Mr Owen had believed that the use of his business bank account to process payments had been legal but failed to act when he became suspicious, said prosecutor Nic Lobbenberg.

In total, £78,845 from the proceeds of two frauds passed through Mr Owen's bank account and he was paid £14,000.

He had been recruited by Colin Samuels, 62, from Redgrave, Suffolk, who he knew from previous business dealings, the court heard.

The money involved came from fraudulent websites which offered work as highly paid escorts in return for an initial fee, but no work was ever provided and no fees refunded.

A second scam saw people with high credit card debts being cold-called from Spain and offered the chance to have their debts erased in return for a fee. Again nothing happened and no money was refunded.

In total the frauds, masterminded in Spain by Antoni Muldoon, 66, who was jailed on Friday for seven years and five months, saw 14,000 people fleeced of £5.7 million.

Mr Muldoon had pleaded guilty to two offences of conspiracy to defraud.

BEER

Seven in hospital after runaway crash

SEVEN people were taken to hospital after a motorhome careered out of control down a steep Beer hill and collided with a group of pedestrians.

Police are appealing for witnesses following the accident, which occurred at 11.07am on Tuesday of last week at the junction of Common Lane and Fore Street.

The vehicle involved was a German registered Fiat Ducato motor home driven by a 67 year-old German national.

It appears that the driver left Beer Head Caravan Park and drove towards Beer, but turned into Common Lane and headed the wrong way down the one-way street until its junction at the bottom of the hill joining with Fore Street.

The vehicle collided with a wall adjoining Sea Hill, launched across Sea Hill before coming to rest partially in the leat on the eastern side of Fore Street. As the vehicle was crossing Sea Hill it collided with a group of pedestrians.

Four pedestrians were taken to the RD&E Hospital in Exeter with relatively minor injuries whilst a fifth was airlifted to Derriford Hospital in Plymouth with serious injuries.

The two occupants of the motor home were also taken to the RD&E Hospital for treatment. The driver was arrested and released on bail on suspicion of dangerous driving following treatment and has been helping police with initial enquiries.

Tracy reaches mountain summit for Freewheelers

A HONITON woman's determined preparations saw her reach the summit of Mount Toubkal (4,167metres) in Morocco.

Tracy Allen has so far raised about £600 for Devon Freewheelers and credits her Royal Marine-style training for taking her to the top.

Initially, her plan was to accompany a group of trekkers as far as base camp, but she had a change of heart and went the whole distance.

Tracy, who works at Fields of Sidmouth, said: "My husband, Phil, was taking a group of trekkers and I agreed that I would like to join him – in part.

"However, a few weeks later, Fields had a visit from Devon Freewheelers, our chosen charity for 2013.

"It was then that I decided to go for it and try to make the summit while raising money for a well-deserving charity. What's the worst that could happen?

"So I began my gruelling training regime. If I said that Phil is an ex-Royal Marine, you may get my drift."

After several weeks of her husband's stern training regime, Tracy was ready for the challenge.

Once in Morocco, the adventure started at 7am one morning when the group embarked on a two-hour drive to the starting point.

The first phase was to reach a point known as The Refuge, and Tracy said: "This was a trek of five to six hours, with clear skies and perfect weather.

"On arrival at The Refuge, we entered the 23-person room with two rows of bunks, where you simply chose a mattress to put your sleeping bag on.

"We were halfway up a mountain, so don't think it was complimentary toiletries and fluffy white towels in the showers.

"But, surprisingly, they weren't that bad and at least there were locks on the doors."

The following day saw a 5:30am wake up call and they were off one hour later.

Tracy recalled: "It was a cold morning, as the sun had yet to come over the mountain tops but, believe me, you soon warmed up once you started to climb.

"The route was a rocky path, but the climb was going well and because I had thought it was going to be extremely hard and horrendous. I was actually gaining confidence and began to think 'I might just do this'.

"After three and a half hours we all arrived at the summit, with views across the mountains and out to the Sahara desert that were breathtaking.

■ TRACY has reached the summit

"I had my photo taken at the top holding the Devon Freewheelers banner, I had done it and I have the proof.

"The figure raised so far is fast approaching £600, which is more than double what I was hoping for, so thank you one and all very much.

"A massive thank you must go out to Team First Floor for my card, champagne, chocolate medal and travelling gifts and a big thank you to Keri (Lingerie) for helping me select my Bridget Jones's.

"In all, it was a fantastic experience and Marrakesh is highly recommended."

Big turnout for community festival

MORE than 500 people turned out for Honiton Community Festival on Saturday, July 6th. Organised by East Devon District Council (EDDC), the festival was staged in a sun-drenched Allhallows Field.

A mosaic sculpture was formally unveiled during the afternoon to celebrate young people and also to mark the Queen's Diamond Jubilee last year.

An EDDC spokesperson explained: "The new sculpture on the side of Honiton Leisure Centre has been in place for a little while.

"It was designed by six-year-old Alfie Gibbins from Fenny Bridges after district councillor Peter Halse asked young people to draw their ideas for a sculpture to celebrate young people last year for the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

"Hundreds of enthusiastic children and young people who lived in East Devon entered the competition.

"Alfie's design won and he worked with local artist Gordon Field to turn his drawing into a real life sculpture."

The field was a hive of activity and hungry visitors could tuck in to burgers from the rugby club barbecue. An EDDC organisation called SWITCH ran a circus skills workshop and The Children's Society teddy bear tombola was so popular that there were no teddies left after the first hour.

Charity was also on the agenda, so the bouncy castle and the face painting stall raised a total of £64.67 for Honiton King's Centre Food Bank.

Honiton Community Church's Pit Stop for Kids was a great success. It included two sandpits and a paddling pool, as well as free refreshments and opportunities to do arts and crafts activities.

The youth club's music could be heard across the field and there were at least 50 entrants for the Spot the Object Window competition – but only three people got all the answers right.

The EDDC spokesperson explained: "Getting most right was enough to be entered into the prize draw, and prizes were donated by some of the participating shops and included £10 gift vouchers for Honiton Toy Shop, DailyZTech and Richard Nash Photography plus cream tea for two at Lace-makers' Cafe.

"Only one person got the bonus prize for spotting what was in Wendy's Cookshop. After enthusiastically giving lots of ideas, she was left off the flir. Offering a bonus prize was how we tried to make it up to her."

Councillor Drew concluded said: "Children and young people are a vital part of every community and are our future, which is why EDDC runs these community festival events throughout the district."

Weather can't deter riders on vintage bicycle ride

FATHER and son Alistair and Sebastian Cope flew the flag for Axe Valley when visiting France for a vintage cycling event.

The pair rode their 1935 Hercules tandem, affectionately known as Herbert, in a 35km ride in the Loire Valley.

The weather turned a tad inclement at one point but, undeterred, they opened their umbrellas and cycled on in true British style to the amazement of the other 2,300 riders.

It appears the French warmed to such British resolve as they spotted their photograph in the regional paper the next day. Alistair and Sebastian hope to hold a velo vintage event in East Devon on Saturday, December 7th. Anyone interested in taking part can contact them via their website, www.velovintage.co.uk

Young people's writing competition

MEMBERS of the Honiton and District Writers Club are gearing up for the 2013 East Devon Young Writers Competition.

Now in its sixth year, the popular competition for young people aged from five to 18, is challenging all budding writers to come up with an original story of 750 words, based on any subject they wish.

The event, sponsored by the Gibbons Family Trust, will award young writers in four categories: juniors aged five to eight and nine to 11; seniors aged 11 to 15; and teens aged 16 to 18.

Six winners will be chosen from each category and each will receive a signed framed certificate, a generous gift token and an authors signed book.

Popular children's writer T.M. Alexander, author of the Tribe series of books, will once again judge entries.

Stories should be sent with a title and a separate sheet showing your name, age, telephone number and address (with parents/teachers consent) to: John Carter, Smokey House, Yacombe, Honiton, Devon EX14 9AD.

Entries must be received by October 31st and winners will be informed and announced in the press. Prizes will be presented by the judges at a reception in early December.

For more information, email johncarter1437@btinternet.com or call 01404 861353.

Fire authority approves cutback proposals

DEVON & Somerset Fire & Rescue Authority members voted to approve all 11 proposals presented to them in an aim to cut costs.

Authority members met on Wednesday, July 10th and proposals agreed include:

- Extend the roll out of light rescue pumps;
- Change automatic fire alarm response policy by only responding automatically to high risk buildings;
- Mobilise one co-responder directly from home/work rather than mobilise a double crew and fire engine from a station;
- Reduce the number of middle/senior managers;

- Invest more time and money in additional prevention activity;
- Change the crewing of selected fire engines to 'on call' rather than whole time.

In addition, the service will:

- Reduce support staff by at least five per cent by not renewing some fixed term contracts;
- Save more than £1m through greater efficiencies in support functions

A spokesperson said: "The service will now be working with staff to shape the implementation of the proposals."

"Devon & Somerset Fire & Rescue Service is looking at managing significant on-going budget cuts, now anticipated to be around £8m by 2015, following the Spending Review announcement."

Cranbrook new option for district council move

CRANBROOK has emerged as a contender to become the new home of East Devon District Council (EDDC).

As previously reported, future options will be debated on Wednesday, July 17th by EDDC's cabinet.

EDDC's aim has been to leave Knowle in Sidmouth and construct a purpose-built facility in Honiton.

But a report prepared for Wednesday's meeting reveals that a move to Cranbrook is also being considered as an alternative.

A spokesperson for EDDC said: "The Cabinet will consider a report outlining all the options available to the council, which include staying at Knowle with reconfigured or rebuilt offices or moving to an alternative location."

The full report is viewable on EDDC's website at <http://tinyurl.com/nycmvrs>

South West In Bloom judges are on the way

MEMBERS of Beer Horticultural Society are gearing up for one of their biggest events of the year, with South West In Bloom judges visiting in a few weeks time.

With the village now fully planted and blooming for the competition, the team of green-fingered villagers are hoping for a successful year in the competition, after ensuring Beer was beautified and their projects were set to impress.

The judges for this year's competition will be visiting next week (Wednesday, July 17th from 2pm-5pm), when they will enjoy a tour of the village.

Chairman of the horticultural society, Ursula Makepeace, said: "We are looking forward to our visit from South West In Bloom and members of the group have been working hard to ensure that the village is blooming for this event."

"We would like to thank John and Diane Lang in particular, who did nearly all the planting, including the church flower beds and who drove to and from Seaton's Scalwell Lane Nursery, owned by John and Linda Widger, to pick up the plants."

The judges' route will be:

● Meet at Pegasus Cottage on Fore Street for refreshments and a meeting with various horticultural society members and village volunteers.

● Drive down Fore Street into Common Lane and visit Sunday school allotment with children and leaders involved.

● Drive past allotments on the left and fisherman's cottages on the right and turn right into Southdown Road.

● Visit Park Road, Underleys and Mare Lane, followed by a trip to Beer C of E Primary School to meet the head teacher Martin O'Mahony and children. This will be followed immediately by a trip to meet children at Puffins Playgroup.

● Visit to Pecorama and meet head gardener, Teresa Cook.

● Visit Gill Carthy's private garden on Mare Lane, followed by a drive into Causeway and past former Alms Houses.

● Stop at Beer Cross to visit Sue and Martin Cooper's private garden.

● Visit floral displays in St Michael's Church grounds, followed by community project, 'Mary's Garden.'

● A brief look at Pig's Path, followed by visits to the Dolphin Hotel, Beer Bomb Shelter and the Seafood Platter.

● A trip to the beach to meet Jim Newton, owner of the wet fish shop and keen fisherman who will explain environmental responsibilities for the village, followed by a visit to the Beer Heritage group at the Fine Foundation Centre.

● The tour will finish with refreshments at Beer Sailing Club, where judges will be visited by treasurer of the sailing club, Mike Ransom; Beer BAG organiser, Annie Boalch; parish councillors and other community players.

■ The annual Beer Horticultural Society coffee morning will take place on Saturday, July 27th from 10am until 12noon at the Mariners Hall.

As well as the usual refreshments, there will be stalls selling plants, homemade cakes and books.

CHRISTIAN Aid supporters enjoyed their annual strawberry cream tea raising more than £275.

Whilst crowds arrived to indulge in fresh scones, cream, strawberry jam and punnets of fresh strawberries, some embraced the afternoon by joining in a hat competition.

Ladies took on a 'Gardeners' Delight' themed hat competition, whilst men taking part had a 'Bounty of the Sea' theme.

The winner of the men's competition went to Gavin McCallum who was chosen for his humorous seagull on its nest design, whilst Daphne Tubbs, pictured right, was picked as the ladies hat winner.

Organiser Janet Lang said: "Everyone really enjoyed the occasion and we were delighted with the amount raised for Christian Aid's work to alleviate the suffering of the poorest in the world."

"Thank you to all those who came along to support us and many thanks to the team of helpers who helped on the day."

"Thanks also to Janice Bowditch of the Seaton Hole café for donating the lovely scones and to Jason of Nature's Harvest in Seaton for the specially chosen local strawberries."

Cream tea fundraiser

Whilst all the money raised went to Christian Aid, £30 was specifically donated to the Christian Aid Syrian Refugees Appeal.

COOKING UP A TREAT | Sixteen Beer Scouts took over Steamers restaurant to serve up a three course meal to a total of 40 family and friends

Scouts takeover restaurant

FAMILY and friends of Beer Scouts enjoyed a three-course meal, after the troop took over Steamers restaurant for the day.

The popular restaurant closed to the public so that the 16 scouts could take over the kitchen, and learn to cook in a real working kitchen environment, gaining their Chef Activity Badges along the way.

Dinners guests were treated to a meal of freshly made bread with olive oil and balsamic vinegar; mushroom risotto; roast local pork with crackling, seasonal vegetables and celeriac mash; and chocolate & brandy mousse.

Head chef and owner of Steamers, Andrew Williams, said "The Scouts worked very well under the pressure and produced a wonderful meal that I would be happy to serve in the restaurant any day."

Scout leader, Nigel Groves, added: "We are very grateful to Andy and the staff at Steamers for agreeing to teach the skills needed to pull off 40 covers and for closing for the day to lay this event on."

Special guest

■ SEATON Majorettes held a fun day in the Seaton Methodist Church grounds raising £469. The money raised will support funds for additional costumes for new girls joining the troupe. Those who joined in the day enjoyed a barbecue, various stalls and fayre games. The highlight of the day was a display by a 'special' guest (Clive Millman) who surprised everyone by joining in with one of the dances, dressed from head to toe in true majorette fashion. The group thanked all who came along and supported them.

Beer WI claim top spot at festival competition

BEER WI triumphed at Axminster & District Horticultural Society's annual show by claiming top spot in 'Section A (Women's Institutes)' at the Axe Vale Festival.

Frances Lee, Beer WI activities secretary, said: "For the first time we won the Perpetual Challenge Trophy. This year's theme was 'Present Day West End Musicals' and the lady holding the trophy is Barbara Greaves, who did the flower arrangement.

"The magnificent cake was made by Jackie Goddard, the immaculate card by Christine Teague and the beautiful wall hanging by Dee Spence-Thomas."

Councillor's concern over crime

SEATON town councillor, Tony Woodman, raised concerns about local crime at the last full council meeting.

Cllr Woodman said that a number of residents had informed him of concerns for noise level and general crime in Marine Square, particularly on a Friday and Saturday night.

He added that he went to see for himself what his informers were complaining about and experienced a lot of noise between the hours of midnight and 2am, as well as seeing several people urinating in public, the main bicycle rack snapped, loud music, and a lot of littering.

Cllr Woodman said the circumstances were unacceptable, particularly for those who live in and around Marine Square, and called for an urgent meeting to be arranged with the local police force to address the issues.

Councillors unanimously agreed to request such a meeting.

Family cause

■ A FAMILY from Beer took part in the Race For Life event for Cancer Research at Westpoint, Exeter last month. Last year the group raised £400, and they hope to beat that total this time around. Rather than asking for sponsorship, they wanted to hold special events to raise the funds, which included a coffee morning at the Mariners Hall in Beer and a car boot sale. Pictured above are Annette Baker (far right), her daughters Elaine Baker and Lynette Burrough, granddaughter Evelyn, cousin Claire Branfield and friend Harriet Anderson at their coffee morning.

Fun in the sun for pre-schoolers

■ TEENY tots from Beer's Puffins pre-school took to the playing fields for their annual sports day events. From beanbag throwing to running races, the children enjoyed the day in the sunshine, where crowds of family and friends cheered them on

Drumming echoes around Colyton Primary

By Laura Goldsbury Noy
laura@pemedial.co.uk

The sound of drums could be heard from far away in Colyton when children from the primary school enjoyed a day of African drumming activities.

As part of a Key Stage One topic on Kenya, all the children in the school were given an opportunity to join in drumming workshops last Wednesday.

Professional Birmingham drummer, Andy from Skins and Feet African Drumming, led the sessions. Each class enjoyed creating different rhythms and songs, whilst learning basic drumming skills.

The event ended with a special afternoon assembly in front of visiting parents, where children from reception class and year six showed off their new found drumming skills and Andy led a special drum performance involving everybody in the hall.

When did you last see a Robin?

■ IN reply to Kathy Hackman's seagull defence letter - when did she last observe a robin in her back garden? Assuming she lives within a squawking area.

Garden bird appreciator,
Seaton

Has councillor Moulding opened a can of worms?

■ IT would seem from the Pulman's last week (Axminster edition) that Councillor Moulding trying to score points has opened a can of worms.

People of Axminster had to fight very hard to get those grants from EDDC, and remember that the one for the Guildhall has to be repaid in full to EDDC.

Let us turn to some of the things that Sidmouth has had money for.

Take for a start the flower displays which are extensive.

Then there is the Manor Pavilion, which has been so badly run until recently, the grass that was cut on private land and the horrendous cost of Knowle.

I could go on giving examples of expenditure but we would run out of space in the Pulman's.

I simply challenge Councillor Moulding to give us the cost of these for the last 20 years.

Councillor Douglas Hull

Teddy bears and tea

■ IF YOU GO DOWN TO THE WOODS TODAY: Families enjoy a teddybear's picnic at the Folly Nursery

THE Folly Nursery in Dalwood played host to teeny tots and their teddy-bears when they held a special teddybear's picnic.

Families grabbed their picnic blankets and lounged in the sunshine at the event, aiming to encourage new and existing families to look around the nursery.

While each child got to bring their own stuffed toys, they also got to pick up their very own Folly Nursery bear on their way in before enjoying lots of fun and games on the site, from a bouncy castle to sandwich and biscuit making.

Alongside entertainment for the younger visitors, there were plenty of stalls to browse, a visit from EDDC's Devon Real Nappy Project and refreshments to keep them cool in the sunshine.

A cull is the kindest thing

■ PLEASE allow my response to the email on July 9th from Kathy Hackman regarding gulls that have a right to co-exist with humans.

Of course they have a right, but if she had read one of my letters last year it actually said that the problem is because we (humans) have changed their true habitat the coast, as we humans are changing the habitat of many of our wildlife and their main source of food.

But I still say if we are to live in harmony with these birds as with any other species of wildlife there has to be some form of common sense.

Does Ms Hackman have gulls nesting on roof tops around her year after year slowly taking over the sound of small song birds that are declining as I have seen in the last ten years in the town of Axminster?

I am watching four nesting pairs on roof tops from my garden this year each with two surviving chicks with adults finding it very hard to find food to feed these young. That is cruel to me as I watch the chicks begging for food that is not forthcoming each time.

Now tell me a sensible cull isn't the kindest thing.

I finally had a reply from the RSPB. If people do not want gulls nesting on their roof tops they can remove nests between August and March, putting the wire barrier in gully's or any other means to deter nesting. They also said they may be overpopulated in a few areas.

Remember these birds can live between 20 and 30 years and like to nest in the same place each year.

And yes, they are protected as I am well aware, but when do we say enough is enough for their sake as well as ours.

Pulman's View

churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

THE week just passed is the time in the year when once again the Anglican General Synod has been meeting in York, and returns to the major topic of the admission of women bishops.

Final decisions will not be clear before we go to press. At the same time many options are being discussed in an effort to offer an acceptable solution to all parties. A further vote on the proposal showed that the two-thirds majority needed is still not forthcoming. The Archbishop of Canterbury is saying that the proposal will face failure unless traditionalists abandon their position.

One suggestion being floated to overcome the opposition maybe to delay the next vote until after the elections for the new Synod in 2015 but this still carries no guarantee. The above issue is not the only one on the Synod agenda, one such found the Archbishop of Canterbury warning that the Church of England had to face up to a revolution such as the approach to homosexuality. The Archbishop insisted that over this and other issues the Church had to grow up and respond radically and imaginatively to a changing world.

Some good news apart from the General Synod decisions, is that approval has been given by the Government to handing over thousands of secular state schools to the Church of England.

Such a move will be a return to an earlier situation and the state schools would join the 5,000 plus existing Church of England schools.

Other church news is that although marriage is gaining in popularity, figures show that church weddings are in decline, 70 per cent of all such are not held in churches.

One comment is that vows are too religious. Elsewhere the Church of England is not recession proof. Financial information for the year 2011 has just been issued and shows that for the third year C of E parishes operated in deficit, drawing £13million out of reserves, with the only good news, that this is £7million less than 2010, but the concern is, where have the savings been made?

Other concerns are that - the right information on finance must reach people in the pew - who require clear information about needs - have confidence that their giving will be used effectively - participate in decision-making - with a sense that the Church of England has a long term future. Congregations with information, show concern, and those with concern are usually generous givers.

Pride of place in many church calendars will be outdoor fetes or similar activities in support of worthy causes including the fabric of our churches. Besides the financial spin-off of these events it is a marvellous way of meeting local people and getting to know them better.

First comes the Beer Flower Festival from July 13th-15th. Then follows Axmouth on Sunday, July 21st when cream teas will be served at the church from 3pm to 5pm in aid of funds. The ancient church at Combyne is a venue for a flower festival from July 26th to 28th from 10am to 5pm.

TIM Pritchard became the new owner of Archway Bookshop in Axminster in January this year.

Having studied English literature at university, a job to do with books was always a likely option for the self-confessed bookworm.

● Where were you born and where did you grow up?

I was born in Berkshire but grew up in Cairo, Egypt, because my father worked there. We came back to the UK for secondary school.

● Where do you live?

In Musbury.

● How did you end up in this part of the world?

My father's family came from nearby and he had always holidayed in Lyme Regis, and he took us there too. When I lived in London I visited Lyme Regis and realised I preferred the pace of life there. This was about 12-years-ago.

● What is your professional background, and what made you become a bookshop owner?

I studied English literature and theatre arts at Goldsmiths University of London. After that I was temping during the days and worked in various London theatres during the evenings in various roles including acting, directing and stage management. When I moved I got a job as senior assistant at Serendip Books in Lyme Regis. I was there for about three-years before I helped to set up and manage outdoor lifestyle shop Ginger Beer in Lyme Regis. After that I had my own picture framing business, also in Lyme Regis. I then took a year out, which was most of 2012, during which I did a bit of work at Archway Bookshop.

The then owners decided it was time to concentrate on their other shop, so the opportunity sort of fell in my lap and I couldn't say no.

● Are you a book-worm?

Yes. Always have been and always will be. When I lived in Egypt there was no English television there and it was before the internet, so I just lived in books really.

● What was your dream job during childhood?

I had two dream jobs actually - archaeologist or naturalist.

● What would your advice be to anyone about to set up their own small business?

Only do it if you are truly passionate about the product or service you want to provide because you are going to work longer and harder than you have ever done before. But the sense of satisfaction is enormous.

● Which three books would you recommend?

The Old Ways, which is about the British countryside by Robert MacFarlane; A new novel called Perfect by Rachel Joyce and Wonder by RJ Palacio. The latter is for older children but every adult should read it as well.

● What makes you happy?

A cup of tea and a good book. Also getting out into the countryside. Sometimes I do all in one go - climb a hill with a flask of tea and a good book.

● What makes you angry or unhappy?

I get peeved with our reliance on small electrical devices. Everyone spends their life with a phone or iPad and seems incapable of talking to people face-to-face and enjoy what is in front of them.

● Which is your favourite holiday destination and why?

At home in Musbury. I think we all work so hard and the house is the most expensive thing that we'll buy. We dedicate our lives to decorating and improving them, so when I have time off that is where I want to be.

Women's Institutes ROUND UP

All Saints and District

AT the All Saints and District WI July meeting, business was kept to a minimum, but the president found time to present one member with a bouquet to mark her special birthday.

She welcomed more than 50 visitors drawn in by the reputation of the speaker, Dr Twibell, a distinguished Forensic Scientist.

He gave members a brief outline of the history and practice of Forensic Science, telling them that he specialised in analysing the causes of fires.

He emphasised how much care was taken, to check and recheck every detail of reports presented in court cases, it was very important that these reports were completely unbiased.

Illustrating his talk with graphic photographs, he explained how he could read a fire from smoke patterns and dispelled several myths on ways of dispatching ones nearest and dearest.

After listening to such an interesting talk, members left feeling that they should all take more care in their homes to avoid becoming a statistic.

All Saints WI take a break now until Tuesday, September 10th at 7.30pm in All Saints Village Hall, when their speaker will be David Craner, "Town Crier - How I Shout and Why". Visitors are welcome.

Musbury and Whitford

THE July meeting of Musbury and Whitford WI was in Whitford Village Hall on Tuesday, July 9th.

The speaker was Valerie Jones on ACWW.

Apologies were taken, and there were quite a few due to illness and holidays. President Marnie introduced the speaker who explained the meaning of those mysterious initials.

The World Wide Countrywoman's Association started in 1929, and have held conferences all over the world every three years since, the next being this October. The aim is to help women in underprivileged countries and to let them know that women all over the world are sisters under the skin.

The vote of thanks was given by Carole Hanna.

After a break there was much to look at, such as the group's entry for the Axe Vale Show, which came second. There was also a members' sales table and a good look at Jean Fullerton's silk jewellery that she had made at Denman.

Jean gave members a talk on her Denman experience, which had been very good.

Arrangements were made for the trip to Morwellham Quay and notice was given that there will be no meeting in August. Instead there is a planning meeting at Whitford Village Hall to discuss next year's programme on Tuesday, August 13th at 10.30am, with a free lunch and coffee, and also a stall for DVDs etc to raise money for the group's chosen charity, Devon Freewheelers.

The meeting closed at 9.15pm.

Tuesday, September 10th is the next meeting, with Mr Whitton on antique jewellery, at 7.30pm in Whitford Village Hall. As usual all are most welcome.

Honiton Afternoon WI

FOR their July meeting the Honiton Afternoon WI welcomed Jan Hankin who gave a most interesting talk on Guide Dogs for the Blind.

She was accompanied by her beautiful

Labrador, Delta, who is a retired Guide Dog. Members were told that at the present time there are 4,600 working Guide Dogs across the UK and the Channel Islands. 1,300 puppies are trained each year.

They go through 30 skill checks during their three stages of training.

Mrs Hankin told members that volunteers are always needed to help with raising puppies, boarding dogs, raising cash etc. Fundraising is so important as there is no Government funding.

Many people leave legacies in their Wills to support this very worthwhile cause.

Finally Mrs Hankin said there is also a Buddy Dogs Scheme which supports blind and partially sighted young people. This can greatly improve their quality of life and also counter the isolation and depression that is associated with sight loss.

It was a most interesting afternoon much enjoyed by all the members.

There will not be a meeting in August but there are two social occasions to be enjoyed. First of all on July 16th, at 2.30pm, there is the annual cream tea event at Manna House where, weather permitting, members will be able to have a game of croquet guided by Anne Godfrey.

On August 5th there is a coach outing to Street in the morning and after lunch members will travel to the Ferne Animal Sanctuary in Chard.

The next meeting is the Members' Meeting which will be on September 9th at 2.00pm, in the Methodist Chapel.

One of the members, Sue Horswood, will give an illustrated talk on her "Summer Holiday in Switzerland".

Visitors are always very welcome to attend.

Roy dazzles with light and seascapes

■ ROY Lang

ARTIST Roy Lang must be the fastest paintbrush in the West.

This Cornishman, who gave the July demonstration to Seaton and District Art Society in the town hall, painted two variations on "A Seascape in Oils" during his allotted time.

He declared his love of the sea and all things maritime (not to mention Cornish pasties and saffron buns) and painted a vigorous scene of stormy waves breaking on rocks.

He recommended studying the behaviour of light, its reflections and refractions, in order to get the effect of sunlight on moving water. With a speedy hand, working on a canvas board, he soon completed the dazzling picture, all the while regaling the audience with stories from his life.

By the interval everyone felt in need of a cup of tea. Afterwards, he put onto the easel a light sketch in acrylics and started to apply oil paints at the speed of light. He showed the audience how to represent the sunlight seen through a breaking wave and the way a line of foam travelled over a sandy beach.

He said he wore his brushes out quite quickly and we could quite believe it. Two lucky people went home with the paintings and the rest of the members were left with a lot to think about, including whether they had time to produce another painting in time for their show, which is on August 3rd for six days.

LYME BAY AUCTIONS

Local auction house changes hands

IT'S all change for Lyme Bay Auctions after the keys were handed over to new owners, the Watson family.

After 33 years in the business, husband and wife team and founders of Lyme Bay Auctions, Roger and Marilyn Woolland, have stepped down and handed over their business to the new owners.

Simon and Susie Watson will be breathing a new lease of life into the auction business, following on from their Windsor Auction House in Berkshire.

The husband and wife duo will be joined by other director, Harry Ballin, who will add to the operation by continuing to support the Windsor Auction House as well as taking on the role of auctioneer for the Lyme Bay Auction site.

Whilst the Watson family haven't made any major changes, they are looking forward to freshening up the business, bringing it up to date and continuing to make it a successful hub for the local community.

Simon explained: "We are making no major changes to the business as it is already a very good local auction house, but we will be trying to enhance and build on what is already here."

"We have a brand new logo, and are looking to improving the company website, by adding aspects such as an online catalogue and online bidding services.

"We will also be looking to promote the auctions more on social media sites such as Facebook and Twitter to capture a wider audience, and also to appeal to the younger market."

Whilst having a wealth of experience in the auction industry, the couple who now live near Axminster, also hope to do big clearance sales, using their connection with Windsor Auctions, bringing down items from Berkshire and swapping and changing to provide a wide variety of items that aren't just from the immediate locality.

There will also be a focus on the removal side of the business, with the hope to provide an all round service for people; helping clients to move, auctioning their unwanted items and offsetting removal costs.

The Watson family have also highlighted that they are very keen to get involved in the local community, especially businesses and charities in the area.

With the help of a trusty team of staff who have stayed behind with the business, including auctioneer, Kevin Frost, the couple are sure they can reach out and help as many local people as possible.

Simon added: "We are very excited to be taking over this exceptionally long standing local Auction House."

"We hope to build on the successful business Roger

Just a flying visit!

FLYING VISIT: The eyed hawk moth photographed by a Rotarian at the showground in Axminster

■ ROTARIANS helping out at Axminster Beer, Cider and Music Festival found an unexpected visitor in the beer tent - an eyed hawk moth.

Rotary Club of Axminster spokesperson Bill Coltham said this particular type of moth normally resides further up the country, in the middle of the UK.

He added: "This large moth was found sheltering from the sun under one of the folds of the tent. Normally resident in the middle of the UK around Leicestershire, it has a wingspan of about three inches and flashes its hind wings, which are decorated with an intense blue and black eyes on a pinkish background. "It is presumed it flew in for the cider tasting especially, but we are not sure it appreciated the excellent music on offer too."

"It was placed in a safe location whilst the workers continued the festival."

Store staff keep on running

TESCO staff in Axminster took to the treadmill on June 14th and 15th to raise money for the company's charity of the year, Diabetes UK. Staff took turns during the two days and, including associated fundraising initiatives, amassed £1,393.04 in sponsorship.

Staff members were very grateful for the support given by customers.

The photo shows better service manager James Sedgwick working up a sweat, timed by branch manager Andrew Hardwick and spurred on by branch community champion Kath Rabjohns.

United Kingdom Hydrographic Office

The UK Hydrographic Office (UKHO) is the organisation behind the highly successful Admiralty brand, providing comprehensive world coverage of navigational charts and publications, digital products and services to the mariner and international shipping.

We have the following vacancies which are based at our site in Taunton, Somerset:-

Technical Development Lead

£37,559 - £41,379 + benefits

We need a Technical Development Lead to steer the technical and strategic direction of software development within UKHO. Setting the standards for programming tools and techniques, you will advise on their application and ensure compliance at all times. The use of Application Lifecycle Management tools and the adoption of Agile development methodologies is central to our software development strategy so some experience in these areas is essential.

You'll need to be a team player, able to mentor and guide a team of developers on best practice and work with them and our architects to implement both tactical and strategic solutions. This role therefore requires excellent written and oral communication skills, any experience of line management and staff development would be a plus but the focus is firmly on the tech.

Technically you'll need to be a .Net expert using C#, the development team will look to you for guidance and as a leading figure of the team you'll need to be able to hold your own on technical discussions covering existing technologies as well as having one eye on the future of IT and a view on how/when/if changes should be adopted by the UKHO. You'll also need to have experience in the development of web, service and desktop systems and applications.

Share Point Team Lead

The SharePoint team is responsible for the technical delivery of numerous strategic SharePoint solutions as well as supporting operational SharePoint services to both UKHO staff and external customers. As a hands on team lead, you'll be expected to ensure that Service Level Agreements are met, or exceeded, and deliver technical changes to time, quality and cost constraints.

- Combining line management with technical skills (developer/admin), you will be the prime resource for providing support and guidance to staff and 3rd parties on their use of the various collaborative technologies. With your extensive knowledge, you will be key in driving the SharePoint strategy and delivering the roadmap.
- To be successful, you must be experienced in running a high performance team in a development and support environment. A seasoned line manager, you should excel in directing others, gathering and analysing business requirements, and making crucial decisions. You will have experience of working and managing the relationship and delivery from 3rd party supplier(s) against agreed contractual terms and SLAs.

Ability to demonstrate technical competence in SharePoint 2007, 2010 or 2013, and knowledge of the IT infrastructure is essential. This post may be required to provide 24-hour support.

These are Ministry of Defence non-reserved posts for which applicants must be British citizens, citizens of the Irish Republic, a Commonwealth state, or EEA nationals. Successful applicants will require security clearance; you will therefore need to have resided in the UK for a minimum of 5 years. Re-location expenses may be applicable.

The closing date for applications is 26 July 2013.

Please visit www.ukho.gov.uk for an information sheet and an application form. Alternatively, you can contact the Recruitment Team at the United Kingdom Hydrographic Office, Admiralty Way, Taunton, Somerset, TA1 2DN. Tel: +44 (0)1823 723353. Email: recruitment@ukho.gov.uk

Beacon Garage & Salters Garage

BEACON Garage and Salters Garage are owned by Broom Plance Ltd, and are headed up by Pete Broom and Gavin Plance. Salters Garage has been established since 1975 and was one of the first tenants on the Finnimore Estate. Originally established as C.H.Salter & Son, Colin Salter and family ran this garage as a Citroen car specialist. Due to retirement Broom Plance acquired the business as a going concern and re-launched as Salters Garage in January 2013 adding Peugeot and Renault to the specialism title. Gavin has a wealth of Citroen and Peugeot knowledge as a Master Technician of both marques.

Beacon Garage has been built by word of mouth from a business first established in 1999 by Pete, who was trading alone as a Land Rover Specialist in and around the area, and opened its doors as Beacon Garage when Pete and Gavin combined their skills in early 2011. They wanted to expand to cover all makes and models offering traditional a garage service with modern day customer service, diagnostic techniques and workshop efficiency.

Both garages see themselves as a 'One Stop Shop' to the local community! Although Beacon is promoted as "The Land Rover Specialists" and Salters is promoted as "The French Car Specialist", both garages service, repair and arrange MOTs on all makes and models of cars, 4 x 4, motor homes and light commercial vehicles - Beacon Garage has a modern workshop layout, which is able to accommodate most sizes of vehicle. Salters can also complete major restoration work for classic and prestige cars - most recently a £30k restoration restoration on a classic Citroen and a £38k restoration of a vintage Bentley. Both Beacon and Salters also offer a collection/delivery service and while you wait appointments. They have a comfortable customer waiting area. Loan cars are available subject to pre-booking. By early Autumn, Salters Garage hopes to have an MOT Station registration, and from then on will offer every service you require under one roof!

On the open day from 10am to 1pm Beacon Garage will be offering a FREE drive in Land Rover - Range Rover clinic. Customers, (past, existing & future) can arrive without appointment and meet the staff at Beacon Garage. They will discuss, diagnose and advise on any problems or worries you have.

Bolshaw delights at Beer Wurlitzer Theatre Organ Show

THE Wurlitzer Theatre Organ Show at Beer on Saturday, July 13th was a triumph – for the musician Trevor Bolshaw who has recently recovered from a very serious illness, and for the wonderful Wurlitzer which, after major work to replace the transmission system, is now once again making great music. Beer is indeed lucky to have the oldest Wurlitzer in the UK, which was originally installed at the Picture House, Walsall, from 1925-1955.

Trevor Bolshaw, one of Britain's few remaining cinema organists, is an international recording and broadcasting star who resides at Honiton and is also the President of the Friends of the Beer Wurlitzer. He had arranged an interesting programme, much of which was written specifically for the theatre organ and also played music that demonstrated the percussion sounds that can be achieved. The lucky audience, as well as being treated to a superb afternoon of music, were also treated to a special tea provided by Trevor's wife Mary.

It was a privilege to have in the audience Harold Britton, who was the civic organist at Walsall for 44 years – he has given recitals in most major cathedrals and concert halls in the UK and from time to time he joins with Trevor to give concerts in London and elsewhere in the UK.

The next show in the summer programme, will be on Saturday, August 3rd, when Richard Monks, a national concert and dance organist, will be playing good old fashioned seaside music with all the popular show tunes enjoyed by us all. Everyone is most welcome at the show which will start at 2.00pm at the Congregational Church, Fore Street, Beer – admission is £6.00 at the door which includes interval refreshments and is in aid of the continued development of the organ. EARLY LEARNERS WEEK AT PECO

Youngsters flocked to Pecorama in Beer last week to enjoy a range of activities put on for the annual 'Early Learners Week.'

Aimed at school groups, from playgroups and primary schools in and around East Devon, the week played host to a number of fun things for children to do, all tying in with the current school curriculum.

The Station Gallery was transformed into a musical hub for Djembe drumming taster sessions, led by local 'Drum For Fun' leaders, Helen Rogers and Sue Althorpe. The children learnt different rhythms and beats as well as communication and listening skills.

Author, Carolyn King also visited Pecorama for the week, with her book, 'The Fish Lizard of Lyme' and her giant shiny model of 'Ivor the Ichthyosaur.' Visiting children enjoyed sitting in a comfy area on the lawn in the shade, whilst Carolyn the stories and brought the tale to life.

Resident entertainer, Gary the Clown also made an appearance following on a music and listening theme alongside the drumming and there were unlimited rides on the railway.

CELEBRATE SUMMER WITH A PICNIC ON THE LAWN

FOLLOWING the great success of last year's "picnics on the lawn" at Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre with Abba and Queen tribute bands, it's the BeeGees turn to provide the inspiration for this year's event.

The concert will run on Friday, July 26th when the hallowed turf of the cricket pitch will again provide the perfect setting for an evening of music, dancing and family fun.

This will be a major fundraiser for Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre, the registered charity that has been providing sport and recreation opportunities for the inhabitants of the Axe Valley for the over 25 years. Now the home of Axminster Cricket Club, Millwey Rise Football Club, Axminster Indoor and Outdoor Bowls Clubs and more recently Axe Vale Social Club.

The event has been sponsored by Axminster Tool Centre Limited which has enabled the ticket price to be kept to an affordable £10 per person.

Tickets are available now at The Sweet Shop, Trinity Square, Axminster, Archway Bookshop, Church Street, Axminster and over the bar at Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre.

So now that Summer has finally arrived, what could be better than packing your coolbox, blanket and chairs and joining your friends for another "Picnic on the Lawn". The bar will be open throughout the evening for refreshments and hot food will be available.

For further information please phone Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre on 01297 / 34447.

FRIDAY NIGHT FEVER | Jive Talkin' will perform all the hits of The BeeGees

CALENDAR TO GO ON SALE SHORTLY

JUST like the original Calendar Girls from Knappley Axminsters very own "Calendar Girls" have this week been posing for their calendar which will be sold at their performance of this witty and thought provoking play by Tim Firth instead of the usual programme found at most amateur productions. One half of all profits from the Calendar sold will be immediately given by Axminster Drama Club to cancer charities including CLIC. Plans are also a foot for the Axminster Country Market to be involved in this production so in addition to buying your calendar there will also be an opportunity of going home with some goodies and tasty treats!

The Axminster Calendar has an original twist to it as in addition to poses from the female cast there is a month devoted solely to the male members of the production. All the pictures are done very discretely and artistically by professional photographer Terry Ife.

This play was, of course, made famous by the feature film starring Helen Mirren and Julie Walters, amongst others, and taking these parts in Axminster Drama Clubs production are well known local actresses

Niclaire Skye and Val Christmas. Niclaire and Val are being well supported in these roles, in lots of ways; by other well-known faces of the local amateur theatre including Sara Leat and Eileen Stuart who as well as being in the production are also co-producing with Steve Black. Steve may be better known to many as a singer and songwriter but his wealth of experience as a highly successful playwright is helping the cast find new aspects of each character.

Performances for Calendar Girls are at 7.30pm on Thursday 18th, Friday

19th and Saturday 20th with a matinee at 2.30pm on Saturday 20th and tickets are available now from Archway Bookshop Axminster (tel 01297 33595) or by calling 01404 831089 after hours for only £10.00 in advance or £12.00 on the door.

Songs from The Sea Cabinet

THE multi award-winning Gwyneth Herbert is an artist who continues to redefine (and defy) expectations. A singer-songwriter with one foot in the jazz world and one somewhere in the future, with pierrot-dotted eyes, polka-spotted shoes and swanny whistle in hand, she may appear as whimsical as a Bonzo Dog, but writes beautiful melodies and has a poet's grasp of the world around her.

Every day, a woman walks the beach alone. She collects each discarded or washed up object she finds and takes it home, cataloguing it with the care and rigour of a scientist. These objects are placed in "The Sea Cabinet", and each one sings with the memory of a secret sea-set story – the victory of a Fishguard cobbler's wife, a jaded seaside hotel, a sunken chapel, the shifting sands of wartime Alderney, the dangerous allure of the King's Shilling, the loves and the losses and the stars and the whores and the drink and the drowning and the drip, drip, drip...

folk trio 'The Rubber Wellies', Herbert presents an imaginative fusion of music, film, art and storytelling that explores stories from inshore and out.

Support comes from Fiona Bevan, who has recently enjoyed worldwide success as co-writer with Ed Sheeran of One Direction's No 1 UK hit 'Little Things' as well as achieving top forty placements around the globe.

UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY FOR YOUNG LOCAL DANCERS

A UNIQUE opportunity for locally-based young dancers, aged 6 to 18, to appear in a collective show at London's Sadler's Wells Theatre, is being offered in Axminster.

Described as the world's number one venue dedicated to both national and international dance, Sadler's Wells Theatre presents an eclectic range of styles from ballet to hip-hop.

Axminster based Niclaire Skye will be choreographing two new pieces for the April show, and both Niclaire and dance assistant Sara Leat – director with Axminster Drama Club – are looking for locally based dancers, within travelling distance to Axminster. Performers aged between 11 – 18 years who have a foundation in ballet, will also be performing in both contemporary ballet and jazz styles.

Auditions will be held at Axminster Guildhall on Tuesday, August 6th, upstairs in the Churchill Rooms. For further information call 07976 312541.

Anyone for strawberries?

Forde Abbey's pick your own fruit farm is now open

AFTER a slow start to the year for all farmers, soft fruit has finally come into its own and it's all looking good for a bumper crop of exceptional fruit this summer.

Just in time to celebrate Andy Murray's spectacular Wimbledon win, the strawberries are plump and luscious, while the gooseberries, raspberries, jostaberries, redcurrants and blackcurrants are also cropping well.

Julian Kennard, owner of Forde Abbey's pick-your-own Fruit Farm near Chard, says "I've never seen such perfect strawberries - juicy and sweet, and so many of them! Don't forget to bring plenty of containers with you; you'll want to take them home by the bucket-load!"

Jostaberries are rarely grown commercially because of the difficulty of harvesting them with machinery, so this cross between a thornless blackcurrant and a gooseberry is just the fruit to find at a pick-your-own fruit farm like Forde Abbey.

Forde Abbey Fruit Farm, TA20 4NA is four miles south-east of Chard, open from 9am to 6pm daily. Telephone 01460 30460.

Frank Property, our journey so far!

FRANK opened its doors in autumn 2010 to pitying looks and a chorus of 'it will never last' and, quite frankly, who could blame people for thinking this. An estate agent opening in the midst of an economic downturn.

To be, well, frank, we were nervous. But we knew we had something special to offer. We didn't think we were revolutionary however, if anything we were wholly traditional.

We simply wanted to establish an estate agency built on the solid foundations of trust, honesty and transparency. This was at the core of everything we did then and everything we do now. See, nothing revolutionary. No gimmicks. No false promises. No hidden costs.

This makes us all the more proud to be going strong today. Yes it has taken time and yes there has been difficulty along the way, but we are proud to have upheld these founding principles and this is strongly reflected in what our customers have said about us.

Any business is only as strong as its reputation and we have been overwhelmed by the positive feedback from many of our customers. Repeat custom and word of mouth have played a vital role in the development of our business; of course we are always mindful to listen to the good and the bad.

Testimonial: "The service offered was exemplary and very cost effective. Indeed, even when things started to go wrong in the transaction with our buyers Laura was very proactive in resolving matters which was much appreciated."

We believe that it is our service promise, a promise that we consistently strive to deliver on, which has seen us through the first tough years that any new business faces. Especially considering that our teething period has been compounded by the economic pressures we have all faced during this time.

Frank has steadily increased the number of properties we have on our books since we opened and this has accelerated in the past few months. As well as a testament to our enduring ethos we believe this is also thanks to our flat commission fee of just 0.95%. And there's nothing hidden there, its 0.95% full stop, end of story.

Our fee makes us one of the most competitively priced agents around. And we don't tie you into a long contract, so if you want to switch to another agent (and we hope that you won't) we only require a 48 hour notice period.

And, whilst we are grateful for our success, let us not forget what we owe to our lovely and developing town of Seaton. It has been truly satisfying to be a new agent in a place of regeneration and growing reputation. News continues to filter through of exciting new plans for the town. We are seeing investment buyers, more first time buyers and those looking to relocate to Seaton.

We hope you have found this an honest account of our journey so far. If you would like more information about our services please visit our website, call us or why not drop by. We are your local agent after all. All the details are below.

The 2013 model update Swift – Suzuki's compact supermini

THE Swift is one of Suzuki's world strategic models and makes strong statements in styling, impact safety, driving performance, handling as well as offering low fuel consumption and low emissions.

Launched in the UK in late 2010, the Swift range now receives some cosmetic upgrades and specification changes as well as the introduction of two extra models as part of the model update. They are the 4x4 Five door 1.2-litre and the Five door 1.6-litre Sport - both offered with manual transmission only.

UK Specification Summary

For the range model update, all Swift models receive some minor styling refreshments including a new design front bumper and grille and silver detailing to the lower front bumper. For added safety and style, a new LED type high level brake lamp has been added.

The interior design has a dynamic feel, with new design seat fabric featuring black as its keynote colour with lined accents of blue and grey.

The three clearly defined grades continue for the revised model; SZ2, SZ3 and SZ4. As standard equipment and in addition to seven airbags and ESP, SZ2 has front passenger airbag deactivation facility, electric front windows, remote central door locking with deadlocks, electrically adjustable and heated door mirrors, MP3 / WMA compatible CD tuner with USB port and steering wheel mounted audio controls. New design 15-inch wheel covers are now included.

SZ3 adds air conditioning, Bluetooth connectivity, integrated audio unit with music streaming facility, new design 16 inch alloy wheels and is now equipped with front fog lamps as standard. SZ4 includes LED daytime running lights as well as power folding mirrors with integrated turn indicators and 'auto up' facility for the driver's window.

Further standard specification for SZ4 includes automatic air conditioning, electric rear windows and rear privacy glass (Five door models), push button keyless start, Automatic headlamps and cruise control as standard.

The 1.3-litre DDiS model Five door is now available in SZ4 trim and replaces the previous SZ3. It now offers even lower CO2 emissions of 101g/km (down from 109g/km) and seven per cent improved combined fuel consumption of 72.4mpg.

A new optional metallic colour has been introduced which is Boost Blue metallic and there are a total of seven colours in the range.

Volkswagen commercial vehicles posts record half-year sales

VOLKSWAGEN Commercial Vehicles has recorded its best ever half-year sales performance in the UK. A total of 18,782 vehicles were registered to the end of June, representing a 23 per cent increase in sales compared to the 15,269 registrations over the same period last year. This strong performance maintains the brand's status as the UK's number one van importer and the number two light commercial vehicle manufacturer.

Volkswagen Commercial Vehicles also registered an additional 1,974 camper vans and passenger carriers, up 10 per cent on 2012 (January - June 2012: 1,793).

All models enjoyed strong half-year sales in the UK, resulting in a market share of 13.7 per cent, up 1.5 per cent when compared to the same period last year.

The Transporter continued to be the most popular Volkswagen model having achieved an 18.3 per cent increase in sales. Customer deliveries of the Amarok were up by 79.8 per cent; Crafter deliveries rose by 16.1 per cent; while deliveries of the Caddy were up 25.1 per cent.

Volkswagen Commercial Vehicles also recorded its best ever June sales with 3,268 vehicles registered, up 6.3 per cent when compared with last year (June 2012:

Alex Smith, Director of Volkswagen Commercial Vehicles, said: 'It's been a very strong start to the year with record sales and very positive demand signals.'

'Demand for our products remains at an all-time high, not just because of their outstanding quality but also because strong residual values and service support from our dedicated van centre network means they make sound business sense, too. Customer orders for Transporter, Crafter and Amarok are at record levels while demand for Caddy is up significantly year to date.'

Audi A1 scoops inaugural Motor Trader used car award

ACCORDING to the experts at Motor Trader the copper-bottomed choice in the current used car market is the Audi A1 premium subcompact hatchback, winner of the magazine's first ever Used Car of the Year Award.

Presented this week at London's Grosvenor House Hotel, the award is a new category added this year to the annual Motor Trader Awards, and all used cars on sale in 2012 were eligible for it. The magazine invited key stakeholders, including trade guides, auction houses and retailers, to nominate the cars that had impressed them most based on key criteria such as customer desirability and residual value performance. These nominations were then condensed into a shortlist from which the judges were asked to vote for an overall winner.

Commenting on the award, Motor Trader Editor Curtis Hutchinson said: "The A1 gave dealers an all-new entry model to pitch into the premium compact hatchback sector – it opened up a whole new customer base for Audi and proved to be an immediate success. The fact that it demands no compromises on quality versus the bigger Audis has worked in favour of its residuals, meaning that its desirability on the used market has since proved to be every bit as strong. It's a highly coveted car and a very worthy winner of our first used award."

Richard Starkey, Used Car Development Manager for Audi UK, added: "We're really pleased with how the A1 is performing – the market really has embraced it as a fully-fledged Audi in condensed form, and that's reflected in its residuals, in the level of new and used demand and in very encouraging awards like this."

The Audi A1 is available in three-door and five-door Sportback forms priced from £13,790 OTR to £22,340 OTR. Engine highlights include the 105PS 1.6 TDI, which gives 74.3mpg capability with 99g/km CO2 output, and the 140PS 1.4 TFSI with Cylinder-on-Demand technology, offering up to 60.1mpg with 109g/km.

▲ Audi A1 is the Trader's choice | The experts at Motor Trader Magazine have bestowed their first ever Used Car of the Year Award on the Audi A1.

MATCH REPORT

SEATON 1st XI, who started the day in 2nd place, welcomed 8th placed Honiton to Court Lane on Saturday.

Seaton captain Ben Morgan won the toss and elected to bat on a dry and hard wicket.

But Seaton struggled to 16-4 before Morgan joined No 3 Richard Warner, playing in only his 2nd game of the season due to commitments with the army, and the pair looked to rebuild and keep wickets in hand for a late flourish of runs later on.

Morgan was bowled by a ball that stayed low for 26 when the score was on 55 and Ryan Walker followed two balls later.

A key partnership of 80 for the 7th wicket between Michael Wheeler and Warner saw Seaton head towards a half decent total until Wheeler was given out LBW for 26.

While the wickets were falling at the other end Warner notched up his first century in nearly 10 years falling shortly after reaching three figures as Seaton finished their innings on 222 with 2.3 overs to spare.

Honiton's reply started off with a bit of luck as two catches were dropped in the second over, however Ed Hunt held a superb catch at midwicket to leave Honiton 24-1.

The visitors rode their luck at times, but steadily made their way towards the target.

The third wicket fell for 62. Then a 50+ 4th wicket partnership was crucial.

Morgan brought himself on to bowl for the first time this season after a shoulder injury and broke the partnership with his first ball.

Morgan could only manage three overs which Nathan Maddocks, on his 1st XI debut, took three quick wickets to leave Seaton on top.

For the last 13 overs Honiton required six an over and it slowly increased until Adam Holmes smashed three big sixes in quick succession to leave Rob Ingram to hit the winning runs with eight balls to go.

Morgan said after the loss: "We played some good and bad cricket today. Individually we all need to look at ourselves as we should all be playing better.

Richard Warner built an innings with great patience while Nathan Maddocks was superb on his debut and Alex Hunt bowled with maturity in important stages of the game.

We dropped more catches which luckily weren't too costly but it just set a bad standard.

We go into this Saturday's game against Halberton needing to win to keep our promotion hopes alive."

Summer fun in Seaton with Exeter City Football in the Community

BOOKINGS are now being taken for Exeter City FC's Football in the Community roadshows, which are again running throughout the summer holidays across the region.

The roadshow is coming to Seaton Town FC for a two-day event on Monday 19th - Tuesday 20th August and the price is £25 for the two-day course and £14 for one day if booked before 26 July, otherwise it is £27 and £15 respectively.

The events in Exeter kick-off with 'Match Mania' on Friday, July 26th, a full day's festival of fun and games for children aged 5 to 14, and the programme then continues for the whole of August finishing with a two-day roadshow at St Luke's Science and Sports College on Tuesday 2nd and Wednesday 3rd September.

Other events being held in Exeter include two Star Tots days for three to six year olds on August 7th and 19th and two blocks of Grecian Days, where children can get a behind the scenes look at St James Park, from 5th-9th August and 27th-30th August.

Specialist futsal days for children aged 7-14 are being held at the University of Exeter on 29th July, 7th, 13th and 30th August, while three Goalkeepers' and Strikers' days are running on 2nd, 12th and 28th August.

There are also two week long 'ball and pool' courses being held in conjunction with the University of Exeter, where children get an hour of football training and an hour of swimming every day.

"We are offering more courses than ever before this summer," said Scott Walker, FITC's sport development officer. "With a wide geographical spread and a wide choice of options, we hope there is something for everyone."

Children need plenty of exercise and stimulation during the summer holidays and what better way to keep fit and have fun than to combine football with making friends?"

All roadshows apart from the futsal days are suitable for boys and girls aged from five to 14 and the main focus is fun and participation through team and individual games.

There are daily competitions and prizes to be won, plus everyone goes home with a goody bag and certificate. All courses are delivered by Exeter City's FA-qualified coaching staff.

There were two 2s, from Rob Heard and Tony Horton.

On the Thursday Sidmouth were the visitors and a closely fought match ended in a 4-2 win for the home club.

No game among the six was closer than the final match in which the Axe Cliff duo of John Mant & Malcolm Glass fought back from five down to square the game on the final green.

Winning pairings for Axe Cliff included; Chris Walker & Bill Polley, Rob Grove & Peter Rollason and Stuart Mackie & Leighton Morgan.

The other half point was won by Phil Wilkins & Jack Banister.

FOUNDERS DAY TROPHY

THE prestigious annual Founders day game is usually played in April to coincide with the formation date of our club but this year, due to terrible weather earlier in the year, it was moved to last week.

The game is a coming together of all sides of the club - Seniors, Juniors, Men and Ladies, with the competitors organised into teams of four to play a better-ball competition with two scores to count.

It's a terrific day out and a chance to meet new friends but of course the game is taken seriously with by far the biggest trophy in the cabinet being awarded to the winners who this year were; Olwin Eaton, Steve Charlton, Jono Barker & Paul Dimond.

Their 83pts saw them romp home ahead of 2nd placed Ian Banfield, Jackie Seager, Charlie Doherty & Anna Trayling on 79pts with Tim Denne Elizabeth Davies, Bill Eaton & Joan Smith beaten into 3rd on count back.

MIXED GOLF

A FULL field enjoyed the summer weather to play a team Stableford with a difference.

Teams of two Ladies and two gents - best Lady and best Gent score on each hole.

Continuing his "purple patch" John Dickinson was once again in the winners circle playing with his wife Jan, Lesley Farley & Chris Poole. Their winning score was 89pts.

In second place with 84pts were; Su & Den Calver and new members Liz & Ken Wood.

On Thursday the County Vets Mixed Flitch was played at Dainton Park Golf Club.

Over 200 golfers were taking part and Honiton Golf Club had two couples in the prizes.

In eighth place with 35pts on c/b were Jennifer & Richard Pyle and in 12th place, again on c/b, were Elizabeth & John Ward. Elizabeth & John also had a two and received 21 balls.

◆ THE finals of the HMC this year were held at Rye Golf Club, East Sussex. This is a very challenging course with narrow fairways, quick greens and strong winds the majority of times and is known as the 'home of foursome golf'.

Axminster-based Sophie Keech, a member of Lyme Regis Golf Club, was a part of the Millfield team which also included Lewis Casserley (Captain), JJ Fletcher, Adan Yates, Timmy Rose and Alfredo Curbishley headed to the Finals hoping to retain the title Millfield won at Burnham last year. The team were seeded 2 and in their pool would face Reeds, Monmouth and Wellington.

The team played fantastic golf and won all their three matches 3-0, a terrific performance by all and in particular the semi Final match v Wellington.

All three matches were very close and all went to the 18th hole, level. All three pairings of Millfield made great par 4s on the challenging hole playing into the wind but the result could have so easily gone the other way.

After winning all three matches, Millfield faced Loretto in the Final. Lewis and JJ won 3&1.

The second pairing of Sophie and Adan had to dig deep after going down in the first few holes but turned the game around and were 2up at the end.

The third pairing Timmy and Alfredo won 6/5.

Sophie has now played in the last four HMC finals and is unbeaten in 16 games.

Valuable experience in nationals for triathlete Reed

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

WITH DAVE MUTTER

On Saturday Luke Reed took part in the British National Triathlon Championships in Liverpool.

He had a very solid swim and bike but suffered a bit in the heat in the run, but still managed a PB over the Olympic distance race.

The distances were 1500m swim in the Albert Dock which Luke completed in 25:39. He then managed 1:03:45 for the 40k four-lap, fast and flat bike course.

Onto the run around the Albert Docks that Luke completed in 39:52, giving him an overall time of 2:13:57 and 61st out of 140 in his age group.

Luke said: "Being the national champs the standard was incredible, this race attracted the best non-professional Triathletes from all corners of the country, with 40 people going under the two hour mark! It was good to be part of such a high quality race".

An AVR trio took a trip to Tipton St John to run the Otter Rail & River Run, a 10k multi terrain event.

It was a scorching hot day which took its toll on all runners. First AVR home was Eleanor Wood 17th out of 87 runners, 3rd Lady overall in 47:18.

Alan Morbey, getting stronger with each race, broke the hour mark for 10Ks for the first time finishing 45th in 57:20.

His son Stephen sprinted the last 100 metres like Usain Bolt and finished after his father, 65th in 62:41.

The complimentary bottle of Otter Ale was much appreciated. Thank you to Sidmouth RC for a most enjoyable event.

Three AVR's ran the Bridport 10k Jurassic Coast Path race on Sunday; a very hilly and very hot run.

Graham Newton was first AVR home and 1st male over 60 in 56:34.

Robin Britton was next in 1:03:24 followed in by Steve Reynolds in 1:06:18.

HONITON RUNNING CLUB

WITH JUDY DAVEY

HONITON Running Club's own Blackdown Beauty took place last Saturday around the Blackdown Hills' countryside.

With runners setting off just before midday, the heat of the day, close to 30 degrees, was a particular challenge this year.

The main choice of routes was either 18 miles or 10 miles with runners able to pick which points they ran enabling them to run a distance of their choice.

The base was at Priors Park Farm, Culmhead courtesy of Jim Hill and family.

The long route took in four pubs as well as a cream tea taking runners to Pitminster and then on to Clayhidon before a visit to Pear Tree Cottage, Stapley for the delicious cream tea, appreciated by all.

Almost as welcome as the tea was the sprinkler system where runners took a welcome shower.

Thank you to the Parry family for the use of their gorgeous garden and all the ladies of Smeatharpe WI for making the scones and serving welcome cups of tea.

Once fed and watered, runners went on to Churchinford before running back to base.

Runners were invited to dress as Dr Who characters to celebrate its 50th anniversary, as a superhero or another fancy dress costume. As it was so hot, some runners chose their fancy dress costume as an athlete!

Thanks to everyone who helped as well as all the landowners.

Special thanks must go to John Burgess who has given up many hours of his time organising the event in so many ways including tirelessly investigating possible routes, visiting landowners and publicans as well as coordinating everyone else involved.

Also Jim Hill for giving up part of his farm for the day by providing the ideal base for the run including a barn for the post race barbecue with plenty of shade.

Ewell on top form despite the heat

DESPITE the heat members and supporters who turned out for Lamberts Castle Riding Club's dressage and barbecue in East Devon last week described the event as relaxed and successful.

Fortunately the hot weather had cooled in time for the 5pm start, allowing riders and horses to compete comfortably at the Dalwood event.

The first of the three tests, Intro B, saw Christine Hill take top spot with Vicky Hammond finishing second; Chloe Day and Rebecca Harding took third and fourth, respectively.

Georgina Ewell took first and second on two rides in the Prelim 4 test, followed by Rosie Wharton, Alice Wyatt, Hill and Pippa Wyatt.

On top form that evening, Ewell also took first and second place in the Prelim 14. She was followed on the leader board by Wharton, Alice Wyatt, Pippa Wyatt and Steph Bere.

The club would like to thank committee member Fiona Benger and her husband, Tony, for their hospitality at White Lodge for the dressage event after which a delicious barbecue was enjoyed by riders, families and friends.

◆ HOT WORK: Alice Wyatt, who was placed fourth in Prelim 4 and Prelim 14, goes through her routine

Overthrow maintains tons record

SIDMOUTH CC 1sts slipped to a three-wicket defeat at Devon League Premier Division leaders Exmouth on Saturday.

Good knocks from Pete Randerson (49), Luke Bess (43) and Nick Ginnell helped the visitors to 237 for 8.

But this was to prove too few as the hosts eased home at 241 for 7.

Meanwhile, in-form Matt Hower passed 500 runs for the season with an unbeaten 77 as top-of-the-table Sidmouth 2nds beat improving Sandford by five wickets.

Sandford were restricted to a below par 226 with all-rounder Chris Collings taking 4 for 49 from his eight over spell.

The Sidmouth run chase was based around a 136-run stand for the second wicket between Hower and Greg Chaplin (57) as the visitors shuffled their pack using 10 bowlers but to no avail.

Over at Bicton Sidmouth 3rds also recorded a fine win with 67-year-old Tom Overthrow the star of the show with an unbeaten 122.

Opponents Plymouth Civil Service & Roborough posted 236 for 8 from their 45 overs with the wickets shared around.

By Howard Larcombe

The Sidmouth reply started badly with Harvey Sargent snapped-up off the very first ball.

The key stand was the third wicket partnership of 151 between Overthrow, who clipped 22 4s and has now scored a century in each of his decades since his teens, and Joe Griffiths (44, 6x4, 1x6) as the hosts reached their target for the loss of four wickets with 34 balls to spare.

Jack Pritchard also hit a century as Ottery St Mary defeated high-flying Axminster by 40 runs.

Pritchard scored exactly 100 and was supported by Lewis Townsend (50) and Jody Clements (45no) as the Otters racked up 289 for 6.

Axminster made a fist of it but in the end were undone by Joe Birch's 5 for 40 as they were bowled out for 249 to edge Ottery away from the Division C drop zone.

Ottery celebrated a win double with the promotion-chasing 2nds cruising to victory over Cornwood 3rds.

Three wickets apiece for Duncan Bradshaw-Smith and Zac Johns saw Cornwood shot out for just 123.

S.Fowler top-scored with 48 in the Ottery reply of 127 for 3.

Honiton 1st XI surged onto the offensive at high-flying Seaton reducing the hosts to 16 for 4.

But a century from Richard Warner saw Seaton recover to close on 222 with Adam Holmes (3 for 31) the pick of the visitors' attack.

Skipper Holmes was also top man with the bat striking an unbeaten 48, including three maximums, to see his side home on 226 for 7 with an over to spare.

Not such good news from Honiton 2nds (114) who were thrashed by eight wickets by visiting Yelverton Bohemians (118 for 2).

Finally, A.Pullman scored 114 not out as Upottery (277 for 8) beat Yarcombe & Stockland (193) by 84 runs.

But the 10-man 2nds (210 for 7) were beaten by 66 runs at Feniton 2nds (276 for 7).

■ WITH the weather much better now and the water beginning to clear at last from the May bloom, the fishing is now much improved.

Boat catches are good on both coasts and on one trip last week some 30 Ray were captured and released from the Minehead boat the Mary Ellen which is skippered by Marcus James.

The best Small Eyed Rap captured on the trip was a fish of 11lb 6oz caught by Wayne Harwood.

Another good fish on the day was a Bull Huss of 10lb caught by James Trevett.

More details on the club can be found at www.honitonsac.co.uk.
